

Mechanical Engineer 1 or 2

Department: Engineering
Supervisor: Lead Mechanical Engineer or Engineering Director
Job Category: Full-Time, Exempt

Summary:

The Mechanical Engineer 1 or 2 position is an entry level to intermediate level position. This position supports diverse projects as required, while developing multiple skill sets with training and practice.

Accountabilities:

- Uphold the Select Engineering Core Values: Integrity, Honesty, Teamwork, and Quality
- Manage projects and associated tasks as assigned by Supervisor
- Develop detailed work plans and schedules to complete projects
- Work directly with clients and interdisciplinary teams to execute projects
- Regularly lead and provide direction to project teams (not including supervisory responsibility)
- Provide written project progress reports for clients and management as appropriate
- Other duties as requested by Management

Behaviors, Abilities, Skills, and Knowledge:

- Ability to perform under minimal supervision
- Must be able to work within a team to accomplish common and specific goals
- Computer skills including, but not limited to MS Office products such as Outlook, Excel, Powerpoint, and Projects
- Ability to design engineering systems and processes as applicable
- Ability to interact directly with Clients regarding projects
- Ability to make independent, significant decisions on projects
- Ability to handle projects requiring expertise in more than one area of engineering and design
- Ability to direct a team to ensure projects are completed on time and on budget
- Develop as a Subject Matter Expert (SME) in at least one area
- Ability to forecast and identify project needs and performance issues

Experience/Education Requirements:

- Bachelors Degree in Engineering
- Passed Fundamentals of Engineering (FE) Exam
- Compress program vessel calculations a strong plus